

DIRECTOR BIOGRAPHY - SVETLANA SAMOSHINA

Svetlana was born in Baykonur, grown up in St. Petersburg, lives and works in Moscow. Graduated from Saint-Petersburg State University majoring in «American literature». Studied in the University of Kentucky, Lexington, majoring in «American literature and the cinema of 1950s».

Attended the short Filmmaking workshop in NYFA, New York in 2011.

Graduated from the Moscow School of the New Cinema, the laboratory of N. Khomerika and B. Bakuradze in 2015.

Her work includes clients like Rafaello, Capital Group.

Filmography (director):

- 2021 - novel "Hate", filmed by Alexander Tsyarkin's script with Victoria Tolstoganova in the main role, participated in the Kinotavr film festival;
- 2017 - short film «Sign». Festivals: Shnit 2017 (premiere, Audience Award), Gilayfest 2017 (third Audience Award), San Francisco Independent Film Festival 2018 (Audience Award), Kitzbuehel Film Festival 2018, Russian Cinema Week in London (best Short Film);
- 2015 - short film «Like Life without Love». Festivals: Kinotavr 2015, Lublin Short Film Festival, Los Angeles CineFest, Konik Film Festival (Special Jury Prize), Kolkata Short Film Festival (best cinematography).

In 2022, her debut feature-length film will be released.